The Elba Board of Education met Tuesday evening, April 20, for the board's regular monthly meeting, and personnel matters highlighted the meeting's actions as the board works to stay ahead in preparations for next school year.

Ten employees at Elba High School were rehired by action of the board for the 2021-2022 school year. Of the ten, two teachers – Ashley Chappell and Al Gilmore – received tenure with their rehire.

Additional rehires at the high school for next year included teachers David Keel, Alyssa Spicer, Marc Sieving, Amber Thomas, Caiden Harrell, and Amanda Zorn. Also rehired were Eighteen employees at the elementary school also were rehired by action of the board for the 2021-2022 school year. This action gave tenure to three elementary teachers – Claire Lambert, Rachel Morrow, and Kelly Wilson.

Additional rehires at the elementary school included teachers Sara Jones, Alayna Cook, Shelia Johnson, Rebekka Newell, Nichole Capps, Jeff Carpenter, Melissa Grantham, and Austin Johnson. Also rehired were aides Madison Johnson, Sydney Crittenden, and Darlene Burrow [through a catastrophic grant]; custodian William Richardson;

TWO INJURED IN THURSDAY AFTERNOON WRECK...Local emergency personnel responded to the scene of a two-vehicle wreck Thursday afternoon, April 22, just after 2 p.m., at the intersection of U.S. Highway 84 and Alabama Highway 141 in the Curtis Community. Upon arrival on scene, they found that both vehicles suffered heavy damage with one still in the roadway (shown above). The other vehicle was off the roadway in the gully. The drivers of both vehicles were injured in the wreck; however, it was unclear at the time of the accident exactly how severe the injuries were to each person. Elba Police assisted with traffic control while members of the Elba Volunteer Fire Department assisted Enterprise Rescue with immediate patient treatment on the scene. The accident was investigated by Alabama State Troopers

Elba Police make arrest following April 17th wreck with injuries

Officials said Saturday's storms brought down over 30 trees in county

by Linda Hodge, Editor

While stormy weather created lots of concern Saturday, April 24, for residents in Coffee County, Coffee County EMA director James Brown said Monday, April 26, during the Coffee County Commission meeting that overall the county fared well.

"We did keep everybody busy this past weekend on Saturday," Brown said.

He said there were two possible tornadoes in the county during the storms Saturday, but it might be difficult to get to the areas where the possible tornadoes hit due to them being in the woods. However, he said officials would check these out if they are able to reach the areas.

Brown said his office noted some 36 trees fell on 29 different roads in the county on Saturday due to the storms. He said there were some reports of hail damage, along with two traffic accidents directly related to the storms, and two fires caused by lightning.

County engineer Marty Lentz also noted a busy Saturday for the county's highway department due to the thunderstorms that moved through the area.

He said the employees of the highway department responded to 26 different roadways over the weekend for primarily trees down on the roads.

Lentz said the high sustained winds associated with the storms on Saturday covered most of the county.

Most matters needing approval from commissioners during Monday's meeting came from the engineer.

A few weeks ago, Lentz said a F350 one ton truck experience major engine failure. He said the estimate to repair was between $8,000 - $10,000 on this 2010 model truck with more than 170,000 miles. Therefore, he requested permission to replace that truck with the purchase of a 2015 F350 diesel truck currently on sale with the Alabama Department of Transportation's surplus sale in the amount of $25,890.

If commissioners approved the purchase of the 2015 truck, he said he would in turn place the 2010 model truck on GovDeal.com for sale.

Commissioners approved the requests made by Lentz.

On April 14th, bids were opened for corrugated metal pipe. Three bids were received; however, Lentz said the bid amounts were substantially higher than what the county had been seeing for corrugated pipe. He asked commissioners to reject these bids, which they did.

In relation, Lentz asked commissioners to amend their driveway pipe policy to allow for the use of high-density dual wall plastic pipe for side drains. Lentz said this type pipe would not have to be bid because Covington County already has a bid in place for the region that Coffee County can use. He also noted there is a supplier for the plastic pipe in Andalusia, Ala.

Again, commissioners approved the request made by the county engineer.

County extension coordinator Gavin Mauldin recognized the Coffee County 4H Shotgun Club. He said these 4H-ers participated in the state competition recently and the junior team brought home a first place and third place honor from the competition.

The next Coffee County Commission meeting is set for Monday, May 10, at 9 a.m. in the community room of the county complex in New Brockton, Ala.

Elba City Schools Superintendent Chris Moseley (left) congratulated longtime teacher Brian Weeks (right) last Tuesday evening, April 20, during the Elba BOE meeting for being selected recently as a "Class Act" teacher via the WSAF News. Moseley said Weeks, a 30-plus years educator at Elba, certainly was deserving of the recognition he had received through the spotlight.

Elba City Council appoints Johnny Senn to spot on Elba school board

During the Elba City Council meeting held Monday evening, April 26, council members voted to place a new person in the District Three spot on the Elba Board of Education, effective June 1st.

The District Three spot on the school board has been filled by Matt Brunson for several years.

Monday night, District Three councilperson Jane Brunson made a motion to appoint Johnny Senn for the District Three spot on the Elba Board of Education. She said this would be a 5-year term beginning June 1, 2021. A second to the motion was made by councilperson Johnathan Lockett, and the motion passed with no opposition.

Brunson said all council members were sent a biography on Senn prior to Monday evening's meeting.

Also, two airport authority members' terms were extended. Kenneth Calhoun and Jackie Windham were recommended by Mayor Tom Maddox to continue serving on the airport authority board with new 6-year terms.

COMMUNITY HELPERS DAY...The Pre-K students at Elba City Schools had a special treat last week when several community helpers brought their equipment to the school for the students to see and learn more about. Each year, the Pre-K program completes a study on community helpers, and that study concludes with "Community Helpers Day" with local police, firefighters, EMS, and others coming to the school to talk with the students and show off their equipment. Above, Elba firefighters talk with some of the students.

"Don't Drop It on Elba" rescheduled for Saturday, May 1st

Packing of the U. S. Supreme Court by adding as many as five additional members – bad idea. We agree that it would probably be a good idea to have some system of staggering the appointment of new judges to the court, but just adding more bodies to the group is not smart, probably creating more issues than it solves. Of course these days it is hard to do anything that 'pleases' even the majority, especially in cases decided by the Supreme Court.

Wearing mask outdoors – some experts are for it to continue and others say it is unnecessary. We play our politics and agree with the experts!

Public funding for Charter schools . . . those pushing the idea in Alabama want "my" tax dollars to follow "my" child. That triggers memories of negative comments we have heard for years from working adults who have no children but pay the same school taxes as the parent with ten children. Our occasional answer (and only legitimate one we can think of) to the latter adults is something like, "No you are just paying for the public education you personally got all those years ago."

The U. S. Census Bureau has issued new population numbers, by state, and Alabama will not be losing a member of the House of Representatives in the 2022 elections as political types had been holding their breath with worry over for the last couple of years. We were surprised to read that California was actually losing one House seat. Of course Texas is the hot spot in the population growth these days (much of it from California) and they are gaining two seats to go with the 36 they already elect every two years. Florida also gets one more. Those losing a seat due to population drop (in addition to California) were all East of the Mississippi River: Illinois, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

After 106 years why would President Biden go out of his way to officially declare the death of 1.5 million people in the Ottoman Empire so long ago was genocide? It is not like he has nothing in America to occupy his thinking and efforts. This event has been debated by government officials and others for many years. Our take on this issue is that officially condemning it all these years later serves only to anger the people of Turkey (our friends). No one should be proud of the events that lead to the death of so many ethnic Armenians, but at the same time no one on earth today had any remote involvement in those shameful events, nor was the United States any way involved. Therefore, again we ponder, 'who is pulling the President's chain to make that profound, (also offensive to the folks of what is now Turkey) announcement'?

Tuesday was the anniversary of the day in 1952 when Rocky Marciano was named the heavyweight boxing champion of the world by knocking out Joe Walcott. He ended his career in 1956 at about 32 years of age as the only undefeated champ and at the time was considered by many as the greatest boxer who ever stepped into the boxing ring (and maybe still be). Years later he died in a plane crash while on a business trip. It would be interesting to know how many people remember that he ever lived.

Be Safe, wash your hands . . . again; social distance when possible, wear your mask(s) and get the shots!!

News Brief:

A two-vehicle crash involving a motorcycle Wednesday, April 25, at approximately 3:25 p.m. claimed the life of a Coffee County man, James Kenneth Connaway, age 64, of Enterprise.

The crash occurred when a 2005 GMC Sierra traveling north on Alabama Highway 87 failed to yield right of way for oncoming traffic. As a result, the GMC struck the 2008 Kawasaki Vulcan driven by Connaway, who was transported to an area hospital for immediate medical attention, where he later succumbed to his injuries.

The crash occurred approximately 10 miles south of Troy city limits. Nothing further is available as Troopers with the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency's (ALEA) Highway Patrol Division continue to investigate.

Help With Funeral Related Costs Due to COVID-19

If your loved one passed away from coronavirus (COVID-19) you may be eligible for a reimbursement of your funeral, interment or cremation expenses from FEMA.

Starting in early April, FEMA began providing reimbursement of up to $9,000 for funeral, interment or cremation expenses incurred due to a death from COVID-19. FEMA considers COVID-19 to be a disaster and is therefore providing funds to help ease some of the financial burden on families during this time.

Many funeral expenses will be eligible for reimbursement, such as:

- transfer of remains
- casket or urn
- costs related to arranging the funeral service,
- use of funeral home equipment or staff
- cremation or interment costs
- cost of the marker or headstone.

These are just some of the costs that may be eligible for reimbursement. Many other costs may be deemed acceptable as well. You can call your funeral home to check what costs may be eligible.

If you plan to hold a memorial service or any other funeral service/purchased items such as a monument or any other funeral service/merchandise, you should plan to meet with your funeral home as soon as possible to start the necessary paperwork so you can take full advantage of your FEMA reimbursement funds.

Even if we were not the funeral home you used originally, we are more than happy to help you with obtaining your FEMA reimbursement funds.

JARED NORMAN ENGLISH

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. - Philippians 4:13 (NKJV)

This was the favorite Bible verse of Jared Norman English, who ascended to Heaven on Sunday afternoon, April 18, 2021, on his way home from his favorite place-church-where he did his favorite thing: worship God through leading the congregation in song. Albeit brief by most standards, his life which ended a mere week shy of his thirty-third birthday held measures of fullness and richness more often seen in those spanning far more years.

Utterly joyful from the day he was born on April 26, 1988, in Montgomery, Alabama, Jared awoke happy every morning with coos and giggles. His college piano teacher remarked on his contagious enthusiasm enjoy for life, lighting up the university hallways with his very presence. Always wearing a smile with a ready laugh on the verge, he relished invoking laughter from others.

Jared loved people freely, fully, and unconditionally, with no consideration of age, financial status, skin color, or other superficiality, and with no apparent limit. His mother says, "He didn't know how to love just a little bit; he loved big."

Known to initiate conversations with anyone anywhere, Jared in his gregarious nature defied the stereotypical traits of Asperger's Syndrome, the condition with which he was born. This defiance played out in all areas of his life as his condition proved to be a gift rather than a detriment.

But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. -2 Corinthians 12:9

This perceived weakness became the powerful instrument God used to shine His light to others through Jared. Absolute faith in God was the most important thing in Jared's life aside from his family. He prayed with full expectation that his prayers would be answered. He never shied away from sharing his faith and encouraging others to experience God's blessings. He invited everyone he met to join him at church-coworkers, bandmates, people at the gym, his barber, restaurant servers, strangers-everyone. Very often, Jared's invitations yielded people showing up to worship with him.

Beyond faith and family, Jared pursued many interests. He earned the rank of Eagle Scout. He avidly followed all Troy University Trojan sports, seldom missing a game, and University of Alabama Crimson Tide football. As much as he loved the latter, he remained quick to clarify that Troy would always be his favorite. He enjoyed working out at his gym six days a week; he was an excellent cook and loved to try new recipes; and he adored his cat Simba, whom he had rescued as a severely malnourished kitten and nurtured into full health. He also loved photography, travel, bicycling, camping, and kayaking.

No greater passion, though, held sway over Jared than music. His first piano teacher noticed that he was devouring his music lesson books, skipping ahead of her assigned lessons each week. She also discovered that he had perfect pitch around age 11. His prowess included composing, arranging, and editing music. In high school, he earned the National Piano Guild Award four consecutive years, along with State Finalist in the Alabama Young Soloist piano competition and several All-State Band and All-State Soloist awards.

In college at Troy, Jared played percussion in the famed Sound of the South Marching Band; sang tenor in the Collegiate Singers; was chosen as sweetheart of Tau Beta Sigma music sorority; and landed internships at Atmosphere Recording Studio and Ariana Productions in Montgomery and at Red Hot Jingles in Nashville. He earned his baccalaureate degree in music, with primary instrument as piano, in 2014.

As his musical abilities and interests evolved, Jared's greatest joy came to be leading the worship music in church. He spent all his free time studying and listening to worship music. A graduate of the Worship Leader Institute, Jared participated each week in the Middle Tennessee Friday Night Singings. By invitation, he was a featured song leader each year at Songfest in Cullman, Alabama. He coordinated and conducted a monthly worship service at Carrick Glen assisted living facility in Mount Juliet, Tennessee. Jared maintained an extensive collection of hymnals and could name almost any song in any hymnal by memory. In addition to sacred music, he played percussion in both the Cedar Creek Community Band and in the Nashville Community Concert Band, which honored him with the Players Inner Circle award in 2019, chosen by vote of the entire band membership.

A member of Jared's church in Nashville wrote in a letter to his mother: Jared left us with the ability to love everyone, in spite of differences. He left us with the realization of how God can transform a life into what He can use in His Kingdom, when one is open and willing. He was a welcome and refreshing light that illuminated the church! He inspired those who struggled with his "can do anything I put my mind to" attitude. I know when we get to Heaven, Jared will be one of our Song Leaders, smiling from ear to ear, with his hand up, helping us all stay in harmony. Thank you for sharing your beautiful boy with us. We are the better for knowing and loving our precious Jared.

A gift for all eternity as an example of God's purest work, Jared Norman English was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Joe Farris and Martha Lois Davis English; and his brother, Glenn Alan Davis.

He is survived by his parents, Paul Wesley and Cara Leigh English Catrett; his brother, Wesley Thomas Catrett and wife Shay; his paternal grandparents, Whitman Levi and Nellie Pearl Catrett; and scores of relatives, friends, and siblings in Christ from Elba to Opp to Troy to Nashville, and everywhere else his journey took him.

Funeral Services were held for Jared on Monday, April 26, 2021, at the Elba Church of Christ at 2:00 p.m. with visitation from 12:00 PM until 2:00 PM at the church.

Contributions in memory of Jared English can be made to: Christian Student Center, 703 University Avenue, Troy, Alabama 36081 or www.troyesc.org

Gilmer speaks to DAR chapter on "Hello Girls"

Nell Gilmer

Nell Gilmer, Regent of the John Coffee Daughters of the American Revolution Chapter, spoke to the membership at their first meeting as a group in over a year due to COVID on the legendary "Hello Girls."

Hello Girls was the colloquial name for 233 American female switchboard operators in WWI, formally known as the Signal Corps Female Telephone Operators Unit. During WWI, these switchboard operators were sworn into the U.S. Army Signal Corps, which was formed in 1917. They worked long hours, often under combat conditions manning their positions even when faced with hostile fire.

After the war, they were not recognized as "veterans" and didn't receive any benefits until the 80s after a long legal battle, they were finally recognized for their service.

In the photo to the left, Gilmer is holding a certificate that was given to Lindsay Thomas, her granddaughter, who was recognized for this project with a Certificate of Award for "Outstanding History Fair Exhibit by the Pensacola Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution", along with a DAR Award of Excellence in History Medal.

For information about joining DAR, contact the club Registrar, Cathy Tallino, at mrsnorwop@yahoo.com.

A birthday memory celebration was held for the late James William Hooks on Saturday, April 24, 2021, at the rural home of Susie Hooks-Goins (the original Hooks home) where the children were raised. His children that helped included Joel (Janice), Willie(Trish), James Jr. (Mary) and Charles.

In attendance was the youngest great granddaughter, Emi Grace Hooks; oldest son James Hooks Jr. and the oldest daughter Estella Hooks.

The family was joined during the day by many friends and other relatives of James and family members.

Raised Bed Gardening Workshop held in Elba

This past April, the Coffee County Extension office hosted a raised bed gardening workshop in Elba.

Gavin Mauldin, Coffee County Extension Coordinator, explained what the Giving Garden is and why it was started. The Giving Garden is a project of Restoration154, Inc., an Elba, Alabama-based non-profit. Currently, there are 20 raised beds and a tunnel house on site. All of the produce grown at The Giving Garden is distributed at The Elba Community Food Bank.

Megan Jones, Alabama Extension-Home Grounds, defined raised bed gardening as a form of gardening 3-4 foot wide beds, which can be of any length or shape. The soil is raised above the surrounding soil, 6 inches to waist high, enclosed by a frame generally made of wood, rock, or concrete blocks, and enriched with a soil compost mix. A few advantages to raised bed gardening include maximizing space when it is limited, it can be a solution to poor or rocky soil conditions, it can be constructed to meet accessibility needs, and it can improve drainage.

A hands-on planting exercise was planned for the workshop, but was postponed due to the possibility of rain. However, after the workshop, Gavin Mauldin gave a tour of the raised beds, while answering questions about the Giving Garden's history, and plans for this spring.

To volunteer at the Giving Garden or to find out more information on possible upcoming Extension workshops, please contact Gavin Mauldin at (334)894-5596.

Coffee County Extension Coordinator Gavin Mauldin gave a tour of the raised beds at the Giving Garden in Elba during the recent raised bed workshop hosted by the Coffee County Extension office. A planting day for the garden should be set soon for those interested in helping.

PASTOR'S CORNER

by Kit Johnson, Pastor

First Baptist Church of Elba, 606 Simmons Street

It Starts with Me

The 2021 Oscars aired Sunday night. I did not watch it, but Tyler Perry's Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award acceptance speech filled the headlines Monday morning. The following quote offers timely advice to combat the ongoing division evident in America, even if you haven't been directly affected by it. Perry says, "My mother taught me to refuse hate...to refuse blanket judgement."

When I think about that life lesson, I begin wondering how children learn to hate and when stereotypes start to form. Sure, some of it comes naturally as we interpret personal experiences, but when I watch my two-year-old daughter interact with people differing in age, ethnicity, and economic status, it's obvious she never hates or judges. How beautiful it is to watch children who have not been corrupted by things such as music, movies, friends, and family, accept one another as equals.

You might say that Perry's mother was a genius for raising her son in such a way, but the practice of refusing hate and blanket judgement has been the mission of each one committed to following the example of Christ. The Gospels record the earthly ministry of Jesus, and each writer describe numerous occasions where Jesus loved when others would not. He shattered divisive traditions that hindered God's plan for humanity. One of my favorite examples is found in John 4:1-42 where Jesus (a Jew) encounters a Samaritan woman at a well. Allow me to highlight two of the many significant details. First, Jews and Samaritans had 500 years of hatred for each other since the northern kingdom of Israel intermarried with the Babylonians while captive and the southern did not. In short, Jews considered Samaritans "half-breeds" unworthy of forgiveness or salvation. Not only should this have steered Jesus away, but secondly, this woman was not accepted by her own for her reputation. Even though Jesus knew everything about her, he used her to help many more Samaritans believe in him. (John 4:39-41)

I understand that Perry's references and feuds like that of Jews and Samaritans might not be rampant in Elba, but I am not so naive as to believe there is no division among us. I hear division in gossip. I see it in gestures. I read it on social media. Yes, we are all guilty at times. We will not resolve all the world's conflict, but we can make a difference in our community. Colossians 3 offers a strategy for change. 3:14 states, "Beyond all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity." This passage was lived out in the lives of two middle aged African American men who paused their Sunday afternoon plans to change a tire for two elderly Caucasian women at a local gas station just this week. We refuse hate and blanket judgement by putting on love, then raising our children to do the same. Communities rarely change overnight, but I can by saying, "It starts with me!" You can too.

Seeing as God Sees

A close friend of mine was set to marry a wonderful Christian man a few years after they both experienced devastating divorces. She was ecstatic. But she also feared that she might not treat his seven children like she did her two children.

One day she was watching his daughters play at the park and turned away for just a moment when she heard a desperate "mommy, mommy, mommy!"

Instantly, she jumped to her feet searching the empty park, heart in her throat.

She found them huddled together where the park gave way to desert. The girls had stumbled into a chola cactus, which were covered in needles. She was indescribably relieved that nothing more serious had happened, and she cried as she tenderly ministered to them. It was then she knew her fears were unfounded.

These were her children, no matter the bloodline. Paul taught the same things: there is no distinction between Jew and Greek to the Heavenly Father. Do you view people as He does? - P.M.

2020 Census shows Alabama's population at 5.03 million people

Alabama has grown to a total population of 5.03 million and will retain its current number of seven seats in the U.S. House of Representatives for the next 10 years, according to the first data released from the 2020 Census.

The U.S. Census Bureau announced the statewide population totals and Congressional apportionment results for each of the states Monday afternoon as part of the first release of data collected during the 2020 Census. Alabama's statewide total population has increased from the total population of 4.8 million in the 2010 Census.

"This data reveals what we've known all along - Alabama is a great state to call home, and many are choosing to do so," Governor Kay Ivey said. "I am extremely pleased that we will keep all seven of our current seats in the U.S. House to provide valued and needed voices to advocate for our state and our people for the next 10 years. Our success in the census was certainly a group effort across the entire state, and I offer my heartfelt thanks to everyone who played a part."

Throughout the 2020 Census, Governor Ivey led efforts in alignment with the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs and the Alabama Counts! 2020 Census Committee to ensure participation numbers statewide reflected a proper Alabama representation.

ADECA's efforts started in 2017 and continued with the Alabama Counts! Committee, a dedicated team effort of hundreds of individuals and groups working together since August 2018. The effort included a multifaceted campaign throughout 2020 that included grassroots outreach, public events and advertising. The effort was forced to adjust strategies and tactics several times due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"This was by far the most time and resources that Alabama state government has ever given toward a census count, and I am happy that our efforts and hard work have paid off," said Kenneth Boswell, chairman of the Alabama Counts! Committee and director of ADECA. "Thanks to the leadership of Gov. Ivey and the dedicated work of all our many partners at all levels, we have succeeded in achieving an accurate count and fair representation."

Among the state's key successes in 2020 Census response period were:

- Higher self-response rate than the 2010 Census
- 47 counties exceeded their final 2010 self-response rates
- Many Black Belt counties performed at or above 2010 levels

The data released on Monday is limited to statewide populations totals only. The more detailed county, city and census tract level data needed for legislative redistricting will be released in August and September, according to the Census Bureau.

I got the chance to talk with our grandson Lawson a couple of afternoons last week when I took him home and am constantly amazed at how my little man at age ten has actually grown into a 'little man.' He told me about the environment, what was going on at school and the personality of a new student that speaks both Spanish and English. There is no doubt we are truly blessed!

For what it is worth....

*** The Elba Tigers played an extra baseball game last week and rolled to a lopsided win to close the season with a four-game winning streak. The Tigers had a five-game winning streak early in the season and ended the season with a four-game streak, which takes away a little of the pain from the long ten-game losing streak in the middle of the season. The team didn't post a winning record and also failed to make the playoffs, but did go put with a bang.

*** The Elba Lady Tigers played only one game last week and closed the area schedule with a lopsided loss, at home. While many teams in the Wiregrass area have played somewhere between twenty and thirty games, the Lady Tigers have played only 13, and I guess it showed last week as they committed seven errors in the area loss. Maybe the girls will have more juice in their tanks due to more rest than their upcoming opponents. However, there is nothing better than actual game experience.

*** The high school baseball season opened the state playoffs last week with the Kinston Bulldogs moving on with a doubleheader sweep over Choctaw County. The Bulldogs have been a solid 1A team all season and showed last week that they did indeed deserve a post-season berth. New Brockton drew third-ranked T.R. Miller in its 3A playoff opener and were simply no match as they were swept in the opening round doubleheader. The Gamecocks may not have had a very good record, but the team is loaded with talented youngsters and may be a year or two away from being a contender.

*** The high school softball season will begin its area tournaments next week and what once looked like an exciting time for area fans suddenly has a lot of question marks. Brantley is as good as advertised and should have a solid shot at taking home the 1A crown, but Kinston lost its best player due to a knee injury and all of the sudden appears vulnerable, while New Brockton has been in a slump at the plate in recent games and will have to revive its excitement toward the game in a hurry just to make it out of the area. Zion Chapel simply isn't ready to make a run, but it too is young and should have better days ahead.

*** With the high school seasons coming to an end I have to stop and give a huge thanks to the folks at GameChanger for allowing me to use its internet service to provide coverage to all the teams in the area. As a one man sports department it is a little hard to make it to a lot of games, but the service gets stats from most of the teams across the nation and this season that enabled me to provide coverage of almost every game played in baseball and softball. The stats were uploaded by the schools to the service and then downloaded by me, which made it possible to put together an article and give the players the credit and publicity they deserve.

*** In closing.... I also have to give thanks to the many parents, grandparents and photographers in the area that provided me with so many pictures from all the games. The digital age has changed the world of photography forever, and that has really opened up opportunities for small newspapers to bring the action to life. Thanks to Roberta Gideon, Cody Nichols, Speedy White, Heather Adcock, Ashley Bertsch, Cindy and Samantha Smith, and of course Mike and Colby Capps, with BC Sports Photography. Your caring and generosity is what makes sports special for the fans of the paper. I've always heard that a picture is worth a thousand words, and with all our helpers we can put thousands of extra words in every edition.

In season finale

Tigers ground Squadron 15-5

The Elba Tigers enjoyed their recent three-game winning streak so much they decided to try and make it four straight wins. And, they did just that, as the Tigers officially closed the baseball season with a big 15-5 win over the Highland Home Flying Squadron, last Monday night in Elba.

Highland Home jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning, but the Tigers had an immediate answer for the Squadron's early run production, and led by a leadoff single by John Martin Wilson and an rbi single by Whit Shehee, the Tigers plated two runs to pull even at 2-2.

Base hits by Connor Burrow and Iverson Lane sparked a Tiger uprising in the second, and when John Martin Wilson ripped a two-run single Elba found itself on top 4-2.

An rbi double by Iverson Lane and a two-run double by Connor Burrow helped the Tigers plate four runs in the bottom of the third to up their lead to 8-2, and even though Highland Home scored a lone run in the fourth, the Tigers answered

Spring turkey season ends on April 30

Spring turkey season will close April 30 for most Alabama counties.

The decision was made to allow as many hens as possible to breed before the males are harvested. Research suggests that slightly delaying the season could have a significant impact on increasing the turkey population. No changes were made to the bag limit, which is one gobbler per day with a total of five during the combined spring and fall seasons.

"The Advisory Board's decision is related to growing concerns of an observed decline in wild turkey population growth in Alabama," said Steve Barnett, Wild Turkey Project Leader for the Alabama Division of Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries. "Harvest data shows that many adult gobblers are harvested in the first two weeks of the season. That's well before the peak of nest initiation."

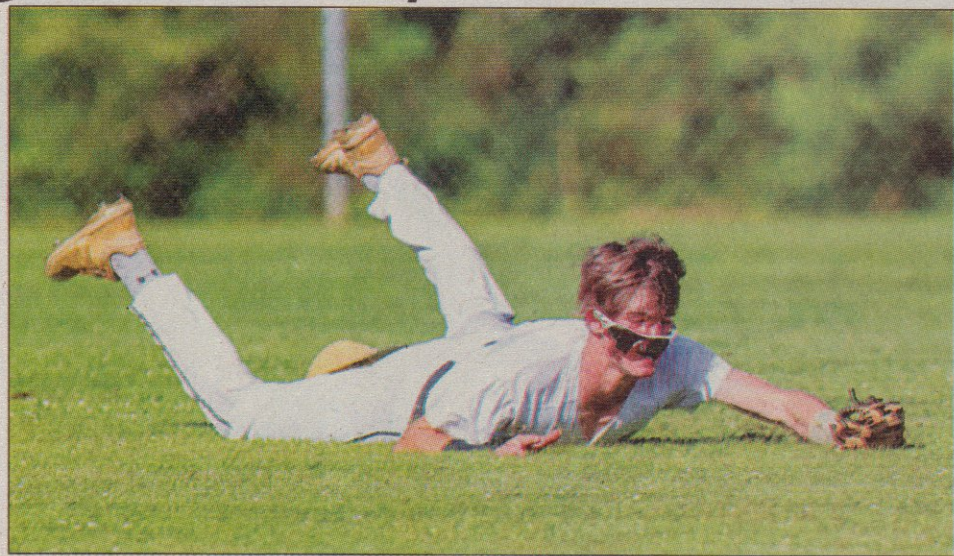

Additionally, spring turkey season will be delayed for research purposes on the following Wildlife Management Areas: Barbour, J.D. Martin-Skyline, Hollins, Oakmulgee, Lowndes, Choccolocco, and Perdido River. The delayed season will run to April 30, 2019. For more information about the delayed season, call 334-242-3469.

Hunters are reminded that all turkey harvests must be reported through Alabama's Game Check system either online at www.outdooralabama.com or through the Outdoor Alabama mobile app. The Outdoor Alabama Mobile app is available at www.outdooralabama.com/contact-us/mobile-apps.

with three runs of their own in the bottom of the frame, sparked by hits by Whit Shehee, Paxton Wise and Peyton McCart, to increase their lead to 11-3 after four innings of play.

Highland Home staged a rally of its own in the top of the fifth to pull within 11-5, but Elba's bats never cooled down and ignited by a leadoff single by Collin Sauls, and a one-out single by Peyton McCart, the Tigers added two more runs to carry a 13-5 lead into the sixth inning.
